“We are ecstatic to see Eagle Overlook return to Coronis Health as an affirmation of the job we do, but also as a facility that is in high demand now to treat the adolescent population.”

Tracy Lamb, Behavioral Health President

Story

Eagle Overlook hired Coronis, as they have not received insurance revenue in their first year of operation. We immediately identified the issues which centered around facility and provider credentialing and in the first 8 months collected $1Million in revenue.

Unfortunately, the customer left Coronis for another 3rd party biller (not for performance as evidenced by the June 2020 quote from Dr. Aflatoon), but for not doing patient collections. Fast forward one year and that was an empty promise. Eagle Overlook has since returned with a new CEO, Patricia Hamilton, who like Dr. Aflatoon, is impressed by our transparency and reporting.
